

TINA ARENACUE:

Now, cast your minds back to 2001 if you can, because that is the last time that Australian artist Tina Arena released an album of original songs.

The singer and actress has become a household name in France after releasing two French albums, but she's firmly set her eyes back on the English market with her new album 'Reset' which was released yesterday.

Tina is with you now.

JOHN GORDON SINCLAIR AND JAMES LANCECUE:

Now, if I asked you to think of classic doubles acts I'm sure Jeeves and Wooster would spring to mind!

The duo have been around for many a year, from Hugh Laurie and Stephen Fry to the pair I'm with now... John Gordon Sinclair and James Lance

They recently began a nationwide tour of 'Jeeves and Wooster in Perfect Nonsense' which was awarded best new comedy at this years Olivier Awards.

KATHERINE JENKINSCUE:

Her first record was one of the fastest selling classical albums of all time, cementing Katherine Jenkin's as a star in the world of music.

Ten years on, Katherine is getting ready to release her new album 'Home Sweet Home' and life certainly couldn't get any sweeter for her, after recently getting married!

Katherine is with you now

JODI PICOULTCUE:

Not every author has the ability to really touch a nerve with their work, but my next guest Jodi Picoult certainly does.

Famed for 'My Sister's Keeper', which sold over one million copies in the UK and was turned into a movie just a few years ago, Jodi is now releasing her next novel, inspired by none other than... elephants.

Called 'Leaving Time', it tells the story of a daughter searching for answers about her missing mother.
